Renaissance Weekends® — the ever-current, continuously refreshed “grand-daddy of ideas festivals” — build bridges among innovative leaders of all ages, with exceptionally diverse perspectives. Unusually candid, the programs are always provocative, fueled by thought-leaders, trend-setters, and distinguished authorities:

Nobel laureates & Pulitzer Prize-winners, venture capitalists, social entrepreneurs & CEOs, change-makers of Silicon Valley, Hollywood, Wall Street & Main Street, astronauts & Olympians, Republicans, Democrats & Independents.

More than a conference.

Each gathering — New Year’s, the largest; others, more relaxed — is comprised of hundreds of lectures, seminars and discussions. All participants are heard; all opinions, welcome. Intellectual content is punctuated by social activities and cultural experiences, music, laughter and sports, local adventures, and powerful personal stories. Imaginative programs are designed for teens and kids. — Extraordinary people inspire ... and are inspired.

“More light than heat.” Civility prevails.

Customary differences are transcended; partisanship is frowned upon; commercialism, banned. Traditional adversaries disagree without being disagreeable. Enduring, often unlikely, friendships are forged.

Thought and action are central.

Through the past 135+ Weekends, countless ventures and initiatives have been spawned by Renaissance. As sought by its founders — Linda and Philip Lader, the former U.S. Ambassador to the Court of St. James’s — the Weekends retain the spirit of a reunion of a remarkable “extended family.”
